Dear All,

At my Christian school I was taught that it was reasonable to believe in God, and that God was the source of all truth and goodness. Finding the truth might be difficult, and finding the right thing to do could be hard, but truth and goodness were real.

When I went to university, I was told God probably didn't exist, and that everyone had their own ideas of truth and of the difference between right and wrong. It all boiled down to how you felt, and you should respect other people's feelings.

This sounded very open-minded. As a view of things, it became very influential, and is a common view today. But there's a problem. If your own feelings are the only benchmark, you can't engage in a common search for truth and goodness, and you can't admit you're wrong and learn from others. If your feelings are strong enough, you will end up shouting to make your views heard, and regard other people's feelings as offensive if they differ from your own.

It's no surprise that this is what often happens today. Social media, even in our own communities, have become places of rage and abuse. World leaders make up their own truths, and terrorise or manipulate people into accepting them. If this is starting to happen even in democracies, how can we oppose the lies told by dictators?

I've no idea what they teach at schools and colleges these days, but as the new school and college terms begin, I hope and pray that a renewed respect for objective truth and goodness under God is making a come-back in at least a few of our places of learning.

House-for-Duty post - good news!

We are delighted that we have made an appointment to our House-for-Duty clergy post.

Revd Andrew Cromarty is currently the Vicar of Hipswell in this diocese. That is a fairly urban setting but he also served for four years in Upper Weardale so has good experience of multi-parish rural work. Andrew and his wife Jo both have many talents and are experienced in a range of formal and informal ministries. Andrew is full of enthusiasm for the gospel and for seeing people grow as disciples.

They will be moving to the house in Grewelthorpe in October and Andrew's licensing service will be at 7.00 pm on Thursday 16th November, with the venue to be confirmed in due course. Andrew will work on Sundays and two other days of the week, yet to be decided. We think this is a really exciting appointment and will prove to be a great blessing to our churches and villages.

Praying for our benefice

Prayer is crucial for everything we do; so we meet to pray for the life of our villages and our churches on the first Saturday of most months. Everyone is welcome to come and share this time – it doesn't matter if you've not prayed with others before, and if you're not confident in praying aloud no one is going to make you do so! God hears silent prayers as well as those that are spoken out loud.

Our next meetings are at 9.30 am on Saturdays 2nd September and 7th October, at The Rectory in Kirkby Malzeard. Light breakfast is available. It's been a real encouragement to see new faces at recent gatherings and we would love more people to commit to this important time. See you there!

Diving deeper into the Bible

As we emerge from the summer break, a reminder that we have a number of Bible study groups in the benefice, at which new faces will be welcome.

Groups meet fortnightly in Mickley on a Monday and at the Rectory in Kirkby Malzeard on a Wednesday, and by Zoom weekly on Wednesday evenings. No prior knowledge of the Bible is assumed – we all help each other to understand better what God says to us through his word.

If you would like to try joining an existing group, or would be interested in meeting on another day, please get in touch with Ian.

From the churches' registers:

Baptisms;

Edith Charlotte Lucy Sterne, 16th July at Sawley
Willow Hilda Lewis, 6th August at Grewelthorpe

Weddings:

Michael Foxhall-Smith & Hannah Hickingbotham, 17th June at Grewelthorpe
Peter McHugh & Rachel Taylor, 24th June at Sawley
Alan Greene & Elizabeth Harrison, 22nd July at Kirkby Malzeard
Karl Stopczynski & Nicole Rogerson, 5th August at Winksley

Funerals/burials:

Charles William Wilson, burial of ashes 1st July at Grewelthorpe
Ruth Gamble, funeral 14th July at Winksley followed by burial at Dallowgill

June Bion, burial 24th July at Aldfield.

The Benefice Book Club

The Book Group doesn't meet in the summer, its members being fully occupied by entertaining children during the long summer holiday, gardening, watching Wimbledon and/or the Test Matches, picnicking in the rain and other typically English pastimes. No doubt, however, we will manage to find (or make) time to do some reading.

We will all be reliving our lost youth as we prepare for our September meeting. Each of us is going to introduce a book, or maybe two, which we loved dearly in our childhood and which has had a lifelong influence on our reading habits.

It will be interesting to see, in view of the wide age range of our membership, whether any book appears more than once. I expect that, as always, there will be some lively discussion and I look forward to reporting on this in the October issue of "The Fountain".

Girlguiding Fountains

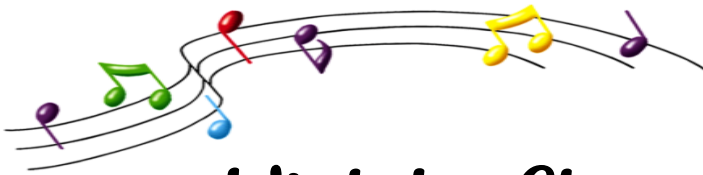

The Brownies and Guides have just returned from the county camp as this is written. Having spent much of last term improving our camp skills, everything from packing and safety to tent pitching and fire lighting we felt well equipped to take the challenge. We had a wonderful week and all enjoyed our nights under canvas. The theme was Crystal maze, so there were many activities and challenges to earn crystals for carefully designed team bags. The huge inflatable 'It's a Knockout' was a great success, especially the water sections for which the weather was ideal. The grand finale of a search for the gold balls in a huge ball pool left the Brownie teams in 1st and 3rd place. Well done, Brownies.

We were all able to take part in climbing and archery too.

The Guides enjoyed an additional trip to the swimming baths in Settle (the showers here were very popular) and took a night walk to Hoffman Kiln, the limestone kiln.

A huge thank you to all the team of adults, Guides and Brownies, who worked so well together to make the week enjoyable.

We return to our regular meetings on Tuesday 12th September, if anyone would like to join us, please register your interest on the Girlguiding website or ring Anne 01765 620346.

Yorkshire Churches Day

Yorkshire Churches Day (YCD) is a chance for every place of worship in the county to open up and showcase the amazing history and heritage found inside their buildings. This year this special day, organised by the Yorkshire Historic Churches Trust (YHCT), is being held on Saturday 16 September.

Tom Ramsden who is the Chairman of the YHCT and a churchwarden in Mickley explained that: "Yorkshire Churches Open Day is a chance to tell stories and bring to life the variety, beauty, history and sheer wonder of Yorkshire's churches, chapels and places of worship.

"The aim of the day is to encourage everyone to visit their local church even if they have never stepped foot inside a church before. It will be a day for those who are curious about history and heritage of their local surroundings.

"This year we are running YCD in conjunction with Heritage Open Days (HOD), holding it on Saturday 16 September 2023. This is England's largest festival of history and culture, when thousands of people come together to celebrate their heritage, community and history. Stories are told, traditions explored, and histories brought to life. "

Tom continued: "Although as part of the HOD remit, entry to the event must be free, there are many ways churches can engage your visitors and encourage donations.

"Ideas include: Provide refreshments, run tours, stage exhibitions, offer bell ringing, put on recitals, offer skills/craft demonstrations, provide eye spy sheets for children, set up treasure hunts, seeds/book swaps, flower demonstrations, holding a teddy bears picnic – there are so many possibilities."

Café Talk 20th September Grewelthorpe Village Hall at 7.30pm
From Grewelthorpe to The Galapagos: A lifelong journey of wildlife photography with Helen Hays and David Hill.

When David and Helen met in the village nine years ago, they realised that they had a shared interest in wildlife which they had both developed at a very early age. Both set out as young birdwatchers armed initially with a pair of binoculars, followed swiftly afterwards by the addition of a camera. Their passion for wildlife and photography has taken them on a long journey, from a simple Kodak Instamatic to the latest mirrorless digital SLR cameras, and from their own back gardens to far flung places around the world. David and Helen will share some of their best results while talking about their experiences photographing wildlife over the years, and discussing the different ways of capturing wildlife, with mobile phones, cameras and digiscoping techniques.

Entry: £3 (includes glass of wine / soft drink)
